

SEIZURE RECOGNITION & RESPONSE

FOCAL IMPAIRED AWARENESS

These are non-convulsive seizures where the person shows signs of confusion, unresponsiveness, or inappropriate behavior. Behavior may include losing awareness or appearing to be intoxicated.

- 1 Time seizure
- 2 Move away from hazards
- 3 Do not restrain
- 4 Offer reassurance

TONIC CLONIC

A convulsive seizure with loss of consciousness, falling, muscle stiffening, and jerking motions.

- 1 Time seizure
- 2 Turn to side
- 3 Cushion head
- 4 Remove glasses & loosen tight clothing
- 5 Stay with them until seizure ends or help arrives

When to call 911:

Seizure lasts longer than five minutes. Seizure clusters (multiple seizures occur rapidly). The person is injured.

651-287-2300 | visit EFMN.ORG